- Webminister/Chronicler - Isabel
 - Webminister:
 - Update of DSH Website continues. The calendar is functioning and new events can be posted. Let me know if you need help posting events to the calendar. At the current time, none of the DSH Officer email links were working. I have a question into EK web. They also made some suggestions for information, site navigation and that will make managing the site easier. I added a page for Armored Combat and Welcome Newcomers at their suggestion.
 - - Updated webminister warrant has been submitted
 - - DSH Webminister quarterly report has been submitted
 - Chronicler:
 - No Report
- Social Media Officer- Kit

Upcoming Events

- Champions Day - Llewellyn/Gwentlian.
 - The contract/checks have been sent out but I forgot to send a copy of the insurance. I'll call her monday and ask if it's necessary since they have a copy already from shoot no pennsic.

- All champions have been emailed about the event and some have started planning their tournaments for the day.
- I plan to create a Facebook event for this and post it to both barony pages.
- Earlier this week I noticed on the event page that this event had become an RP. I messaged the event coordinator, Fortune, and she thinks this was done by mistake but would check with their highnesses to be sure. The next day I noticed that it was no longer an RP. I had been contacted by her last month asking if we could run K&Q Archery Champs at this event and I declined as the whole point of this event is to have it be a day for just the baronies to get together and enjoy themselves. Making it also a royal champs event would change the whole event. I did tell her I thought the site would be good for it if they wanted to run it at another time but just not during our champions day
- I went to the BBM baronial meeting again. They've approved the whole 7 hours we said we wanted to do for the event. Total cost is $800 plus a $150 security deposit that will be split evenly between the baronies ($400 and $75 respectively).
 - I still need to get in touch with their exchequer to get the check but until I send in the contract with the money, our date isn't reserved yet.
 - It might be easiest to just roll over the Shoot No Pennsic deposit to Champion's day
- BBM brought up a good point about what happens if the world shuts down again. I'll be calling them tomorrow to find out if we'll be refunded if the governor shuts down the state before we get a chance to hold this event.
- It would be acceptable for us to pay for everything and have BBM compensate after for their half to facilitate getting checks to the site and other needs.
- Baron/ess BBM said they will not need court time as they plan to instill their champions at Yule.
- I have begun reaching out to the champions whom I've seen in person but will be making more of an effort with Gwenllian this week to get the champs in contact with each other so they can start coming up with their tournaments. As of right now, their archery champion slot is empty but they said they had something in the works so I'm not sure if Casimir is running the tourney alone or with help yet.
